PERSONAL PROFILE

Since graduating in 2015 from Falmouth university with a BA in Film, I have been working as a self-shooting Director, Videographer and DoP. I am a confident, hands on, motivated individual who thrives in a team dynamic.

My work over 7+ years consists of music videos, short films and corporate video. I also have industry experience working in the camera department as an EPK videographer as a runner and production assistant.

I'm someone who is wholeheartedly obsessed with the creative world, no matter the discipline or process. I strive to build lasting relationships, tell powerful stories, and create beautiful content.
